
THE JOURNAL OF ORIENTAL STUDIES

Vol. 21 August 2011

CONTENTS

Special Series:

Humane Education, A Bridge to Peace (3)

Daisaku Ikeda

Gu Mingyuan3

Translated by Soka Gakkai

Feature: A New Humanism for World Peace—From Two Symposiums

From the Symposium in India to commemorate the 50th anniversary since the conception of the Institute of Oriental Philosophy:

Message *Daisaku Ikeda*40

Translated by Soka Gakkai

Compassion for Humankind is the Way to Peace *Chinmaya R. Gharekhan*44

Bodhi Tree and Human Revolution *Lokesh Chandra*48

The New Humanism for World Peace *Yoichi Kawada*51

Translated by Shin'ichi Hashimoto

The Revival Plan of Nalanda University *Gopa Sabharwal*62

From the Symposium with the Brazilian Academy of Philosophy:

Message *Daisaku Ikeda*70

Translated by Soka Gakkai

The Trilogy Spheres of Peter Sloterdijk *Bárbara Freitag Rouanet*73

Life and Earth: Philosophical Remedy for Environmental Problems
Shuichi Yamamoto and Victor S. Kuwahara85

Life, War and Peace: Towards a Hermeneutics of Human Rights
Nythamar de Oliveira102

The Buddhist Perspective of Life and the Idea of Human Rights
Yoichi Kawada123

Translated by Shinobu Apple

Women: Today, Tomorrow, and Always *Thereza Penna Firme*143

Contributions:

In Pursuit of Peace: The Cosmic Nature of Our Inner and Outer Journey
Anthony J. Marsella148

The Challenge of Religious Pluralism in Malaysia *Mohamed Fauzi Yaacob*166

The Premises and Promises of the Buddhist-Muslim Dialogue
Mohammad Selim178

Dialogue with Nature and Interreligious Encounter:
Toward a Comparative Theology of the Sense of Wonder
Connie Lasher189

Notes on Contributors / Inside Back Cover